Keep Your Cool in The Summer with ARCTIC Breeze

Pfäffikon/Switzerland, May 8th, 2012

ARCTIC is pleased to introduce ARCTIC Breeze this summer to take you away from the sweltering heat of the summer!

It is a USB fan designed to provide a refreshing air flow when it's too hot around here no matter it is your room or the office. You can put it right beside your computer or wherever there is a USB power source. Simply connect an ARCTIC Breeze to an available USB port of your computer, a USB power adapter or portable battery and it will gently cool you down with a quiet breeze. Its flexible neck allows you to adjust it to the perfect angle and there is a knob on the base for you to control the fan speed.

The ARCTIC Breeze is definitely something you cannot miss out on your list of must-haves for this summer! It has a two-year limited warranty and the MSRP is 19.95 USD and 14.95 EUR excl. VAT.
